

DELDEN: Verbeekstraat

In Delden a street is named after Hermanus Verbeek (1809-1872). He was mayor of town and Delden and member of the Provincial Board of Overijssel; Hermanus Verbeek is in the familytree of Rien Verbeek (Twente – nr. 03) .

DINXPERLO:

In Dinxperlo a street is named after Mr. H.J.Verbeek. He became mayor of this municipality in 1926. More information can be found in 'well-known Verbeeks' (mayors) .He belongs to 'Verbeek nr 15'.

EINDHOVEN: Verbeeklaan

Dr.Verbeek 1901-1977

HALSTEREN: Verbeekhof

In Halsteren the name 'Verbeek' certainly is not unknown. There are a lot of people with that name, living in this West-Brabant village. The most well-known (and honored with a street name) is Petrus Gerardus Verbeek (1820-1891). He owned the "Blue Hand-farm"; he was one of the notables of the village.

He left his money and property after the 'Verbeek Foundation' founded by him for the purpose of founding an orphanage. That orphanage was never built, but the 'Verbeek Foundation "still exists. (Verbeek-Steenbergen – nr. 41)

HELMOND: Past.Verbeekstr.

LEIDEN: Verbeekstraat (and Verbeek-tunnel)

In Leiden a street is named after the famous geologist dr.R.D.M.Verbeek; he lived from 1845 to 1926. The cycliststunnel that connects this street with the "Science Park" is named Verbeek-Tunnel.

Dr.R.D.M.Verbeek was involved with many sought mineable minerals in Indonesia. On the island of Celebes (now called Sulawesi) a mountain is named after him.

(Verbeekfamily Hall-nr.04)

(thanks to John R.Verbeek)

ROTTERDAM:

Ankie Verbeek-Ohrlaan

Ankie Verbeek-Ohr (officially: Mrs Antonia Gertrude Verbeek-Ohr) was a member of the municipalityboard from 1982 until 1990 and alderman in 1992; she was married with Jan Willem Verbeek, a senator.

Mrs Verbeek-Ohr has made particular efforts for the preservation and restoration of the Pilgrim-fathers Church in Rotterdam-Delfshaven and in that complex there is a room named after her.
(Verbeek-Rotterdam nr.33.)

SITTARD: Pastoor Verbeekstraat

Martinus Michael Jacobus Verbeek, born at Venray on 16-8-1858, passed away (70 years) at Sittard on 30-12-1928; he was a Roman-Catholic priest in in Broek-Sittard (diocese Roermond) from 1884 until 1917.

He belongs to the Verbeekfamily in Arcen-Velden (nr. 54)

VEGHEL: dr. Verbeeksingel

In Veghel, the municipality council has named a girth to the famous resident and medical Dr. Johannes Hermanus Henricus Verbeek (1863-1950). Dr. Verbeek is listed in the Verbeek-family 'Steenbergen' (nr. 41).

ZAANDAM: A.G. Verbeekstraat

Mr. A.G. Verbeek has been very active in the early 20th century. He was chairman of the Federation of Workers Cooperations and a propagandist for the Socialists Party. There are many reports of meetings across the whole country with his name.

In the town of Zaandam he was a (socialist) member of the municipality council and alderman from 1923 – 1927. Mr. A.G. Verbeek belongs to the Verbeek family 'Megen/Hoorn' (nr. 45); he was related to Mr. J.G.H. Verbeek, mentioned above.

(met dank aan Stephanie de Wit van Adviesbureau List, Zaandam voor de gemaakte foto)